FAIRVIEW

In keeping with his innovative repertoire, Charles Back introduced the Petite Sirah mother block to South African soils in 2004. Indulge in a deep red, full bodied wine offering intense plum characters, a robust palate with juicy tannins and an elegant finish with hints of lingering pepper. A beautiful choice for an unusual wine that is ready to drink now or age for later indulgence.

Fairview Petite Sirah 2014

THE VARIETY:

Petite Sirah [pe-teet-si-rah] (also known as Durif) is a natural crossing of Syrah and Peloursin, discovered by François Durif in the south of France in 1880. Its intense colour and good tannin structure make it an excellent wine for ageing. Today the variety is mostly grown in California and Australia. Petite Sirah was introduced to South Africa by Fairview owner, Charles Back after he tasted it abroad. It thrives in our warm climate – both in Paarl and in the Swartland.

IN THE VINEYARD:

Grapes are sourced from a trellised vineyard on the upper slopes of the Fairview farm on Paarl mountain. The vineyard was planted in 2004 on decomposed granite soils. Summer canopy management practices include removal of leaves to open the canopy to sunlight and a few tipping actions. The yield is controlled by dropping bunches post veraison.

WINEMAKING:

The grapes were handpicked on the 7 March 2014. The fruit was hand sorted over a sorting table, where damaged and burnt berries were removed. Fermentation took place in a foudre (open-top French oak vat), after which the skins were gently basket pressed. The wine was matured in 60% new French oak barrels, 10% new American oak barrels and the remaining was matured in 2nd and 3rd fill French and American oak. The wine was allowed to mature for 20 months in barrels before being racked, lightly filtered and bottled.

WINEMAKER'S COMMENTS:

“Petite Sirah naturally produces wines that are dark, bold and full-bodied. With a few years of cellaring, the wine develops beautifully in bottle and is ultimately a fantastic wine with hearty meat dishes, like lamb shank or pork belly.” - Anthony de Jager-

TASTING NOTE:

Inky dark red colour, with aromas of vanilla, Christmas cake and poached pear. The palate is full, with generous robust tannins and flavours of cinnamon, dates and spice.
